

DENTISTS PUZZLED BY PENSIONS

Most dentists are confused about retirement planning and pension freedom reforms

78%

of dentists don't understand the key features of a pension

76%

of dentists don't understand new pension freedom reforms

78%

of dentists don't know how much to set aside for a comfortable life in retirement

75%

of dentists are unaware how much the government contributes for every pound invested in a pension of dentists incorrectly believe they can withdraw their full pension fund at any time, completely tax free

28%

£48,150*

is the average amount of pension income dentists expected to need per annum in 2014

£39,602

is the average amount of pension income dentists expected to need per annum in 2016

Wesleyan is a financial mutual providing specialist advice to doctors, dentists, teachers and lawyers.

www.wesleyan.co.uk

 @wesleyan

WESLEYAN

we are all about you

Data taken from a survey of 100 dentists carried out by Censuswide on behalf of Wesleyan in February 2016

*Figure taken from a survey of 100 dentists carried out by Censuswide on behalf of Wesleyan in February 2014